The authors have intentionally left this chapter open to promote engagement with the reader. This chapter is available for all American Fulcrum members to read at our website www.americanfulcrum.org. Membership to American Fulcrum is free with the purchase or download of the book, Building the American Fulcrum.

In order to effect change in America, all of us must have a voice and share our ideas. When you join American Fulcrum, you will be able to provide detailed information about your idea's to help change our nation. To introduce your opportunity for change, you will need to provide the following info:

1. Identify your opportunity for change
2. Provide an overview of the opportunity
3. Provide details of your solution
4. Provide qualitative or quantitative information (proof for your solution) as to why your solution will resolve the issue(s).
5. How will America benefit from your proposed solution
6. Who in America will benefit from your proposed solution

American Fulcrum will review all ideas for change submitted to www.americanfulcrum.org.

and Fix America!”*
